

LEADERSHIP NEWS

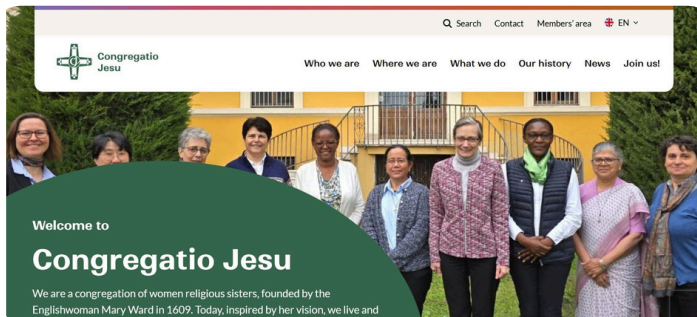

3

FEBRUARY 2026

NEWS FROM VIA NUMENTANA

Go-Live of our new website

Who are the sisters of the Congregation of Jesus? Where are they missioned?

Our new website answers these and many other questions.

At www.congregatiojesu.org, you will find a wealth of content that gives information about Mary Ward, Teresa Ball, the Congregation and our mission. You will also find information on the subject of vocation, prayer suggestions, videos with reflections and much more.

In the News section, we provide regular updates on current developments and information from our Provinces and Regions. The content is available in English, Spanish and German.

To design the new website, an international editorial team analysed our previous websites, merged the existing material and created new content. However, the website is not ever complete it is intended to be our central information platform and will continue to evolve.

We therefore would be delighted if you participate in the communication and send us photos, videos, reports or ideas and suggestions. Please write to communications@congjesu.org

LEADERSHIP NEWS

Meeting of the CJ development network in Rome

The commitment to professional development projects, supporting the poorest of the poor, giving dignity to human life, especially women and children, is an important mission within the Congregatio Jesu.

From February 2 to 6, sisters and lay collaborators from some Provinces and organizations within the Mary Ward Development Network came together to discuss more intensive cooperation and possibilities to grow closer together as a network.

You can find more pictures on our website: www.congregatiojesu.org

New international Communications Officer

Since January 15, 2026, Esther Finis is the new Communications Officer of the international CJ. Esther is not only an experienced specialist in communications, public relations and digitalisation, but also a companion of Mary Ward and has been part of the Mary Ward family since 2014. If you want to reach out, please write to communications@congjesu.org

United in prayer and daily commitment for a world of PEACE!

